

Wildflower Walk: Discover the Colors of California

Each spring, San Diego's hills and canyons burst into color with more than 3,000 species of wildflowers. This customized, guided wildflower walk will take you to one of the best bloom spots around.

Led by expert naturalist Cypress Hansen, you'll stroll easy trails lined with blossoms, enjoy endless photo opportunities, and leave with a deeper appreciation for the artistry of nature and the ways wildflowers shape our world.

Perfect for: native plant lovers, families, photographers, and wildlife enthusiasts

Distance: 1.5 miles (flat & easy)

Duration: we go at your pace! Usually ~1-2 hours

Location: near Solana Beach

Learn the "why" behind a flower's color, smell, and shape

California's iconic wildflowers